A few of the ways LIONS serve and support our community include:

- Dictionary Program for all 3rd and new 4th/5th graders for Windcrest, Walzem, Camelot, Montgomery, and Royal Ridge Elementary Schools.
- Provide supplies to teachers at the elementary schools.
- Provide free vision screening through the Lions Mobile Eye Screening Unit.
- Sponsor the amazing, award winning Roosevelt High School LEO Club.
- Sponsor an annual Peace Poster Contest at Ed White Middle School.
- Provide free vision screen for children under five years of age using our state-of-art KidSight vision screening system.
- Prepare and Serve a hearty, healthy dinner for the Homeless.
- Sponsor one or more children to the Texas Lions Camp for kids with physical disabilities, Down Syndrome, and diabetes, and provide financial assistance to the camp.
- Collect, sort, and contribute used eyeglasses to Lions International. These glasses are redistributed worldwide to help people in need who are unable to obtain glasses.
- Help construct and fund PET, Personal Energy Transport, devices for mobility impaired throughout the world.
- We fund all this and more through our annual Pancake & Sausage Breakfast, Chili & Cornbread Dinner, and Christmas Greenery Sales, and the generous support from our community.
